

NEW ZEALAND LAW LIBRARIANS' ASSOC.

www.nzlla.org.nz

NZLLA Symposium Programme

When: 07 May – 08 May

Location: Waitemata Room, Level 3, Auckland City Libraries, 44-46 Lorne St, Auckland Central

Thursday 07 May

10-12 Training roundtable discussion. Facilitator – Lynley Stone

Topics to be discussed:

- Training senior staff
- Training when time is limited
- Integrating library training into inductions/courses
- How to identify and cope with different levels of ability in a group setting
- How to integrate publisher training with in-house training

REGISTRATION opens at noon

Start at 1pm (prompt)

1pm - 1:30 World financial crisis: Causes and implications Professor Bob Buckle - Pro Vice-Chancellor and Dean of Commerce and Administration, Victoria University

A discussion of the causes of the global financial crisis, including the role of economic growth and policies in China and the USA, and the future income, financial and regional implications of this crisis

1.30 - 2.00 Auckland Economy Karen Lyons – Group Manager, Strategy office, Auckland City Council
Factors that make Auckland the commercial powerhouse of NZ, opportunities and threats that Auckland is facing, & why it matters to the rest of NZ

2.00 – 2.45 Constitutional law Sir Geoffrey Palmer – President, New Zealand Law Commission
Sir Geoffrey will talk on the possible reform of New Zealand's legislative process

2.45 – 3.15 Afternoon tea Sponsored by

3.15 – 4.00 Censorship Bill Hastings – Chief Censor, Office of Film and Literature Classification
Censorship and libraries

4.00 – 4.45 Maori Corporations Tama Potaka - Senior Solicitor, Bell Gully
What makes Maori Corporations so different from other corporations? Why are they important & why should we know more about them (e.g. the number of stakeholders/shareholders they have, tribal structure, the amount of strategic land they own or could potentially own)

5.30 – 6.30 Drinks at Russell McVeagh Level 30 Vero Centre, 48 Shortland St

6.30 - Dinner – Khao Thai ADLS building, corner of Chancery & O'Connell Sts

Dinner drinks sponsored by

Friday 08 May

9 – 9.45 Forensic computer expert Campbell McKenzie – Associate Director, PricewaterhouseCoopers

The role of a forensic computer expert in legal cases (e.g. what sort of cases is he usually involved in, what sort of evidence is he looking for)

9.45 – 10.30 Employment law Greg Cain – Partner, Minter Ellison

Changes in employment law since the introduction of the new government

10.30 – 11.00 Morning tea sponsored by

11.00 - 11.45 Ambush marketing Richard Watts – Partner, Simpson Grierson

Richard will be talking on ambush marketing in respects of future events such as the Rugby World Cup 2010

11.45 – 12.30 AUT law school Professor Noel Cox – Auckland University of Technology

Discussion on the new law school – why it was set up, what sort of law will they be focussing on, and what sort of firms they'll be training people to enter

12.30 – 2pm lunch

2.00 – 2.30 The role of a Special Librarian Kirsten McChesney - PricewaterhouseCoopers, Julie Sibthorpe – University of Auckland Business School, Jason Ashton – Institute of Environmental Science and Research

What functions do they perform e.g. pure library or mixture of library, marketing, training etc? The speakers will also talk about what value their respective organisations place on the library

2.30 – 3.00 Registration: Pros and cons Mary Cain, Research Librarian, Robyn Emmett, National Information & Research Manager

Hear ideas for and against professional registration

3.00 – 3.30 The future of NZLLA Alistair Jenkin – President NZLLA

Items for discussion include: NZLLA's finances, the structure of NZLLA committees, the structure of NZLLA meetings

Finish with Afternoon tea sponsored by

